CHARLESTOWN, (S. Carolina,) Aug. 27.

A regular Poſt is now eſtabliſhment from hence to North-Carolina, which ſets off every other Tueſday from the Poſt-Office here, whereby Letters may be conveyed, by Land, to and from all the Northern Provinces.

Auguſt 23. The Common Cauſe of America having been moſt baſely and traiterouſly deſerted by a Number of Merchants, Traders, and others, of the City of New-York, at a Time when the Eyes of all the Colonies were more particularly fixed upon them; when their Virtue, to reſiſt every Temptation, and to defeat every Attempt of a prevailing Faction, was relied on; and when our Affairs began to wear a more pleaſing Aſpect and promiſe ſucceſs, from an inflexible Perſeverance in the Meaſure of NON-IMPORTATION; it has had no other Effect upon this Province than to excite Aſtoniſhment and Indignation, and to attach us (if poſſible) more firmly to the Cauſe than ever. In Conſequence whereof, there was Yeſterday at LIBERTY-TREE, the moſt reſpectable General Meeting of the Inhabitants we ever had, when JOHN HUGER, Eſq; was unanimouſly choſen Chairman: And the Meeting being continued, by Adjournment, to this Day, the following RESOLUTIONS were entered into, unanimouſly, except the IVth, to which there was only a ſingle Negative.

I. That the Reſolutions entered into by the Inhabitants of the Colonies, againſt the Importation of Goods from Great-Britain, are ſafe, peaceable, and conſtitutional; and if perſiſted in, we have the ſtrongeſt Reaſon to believe, would be productive of every ſalutary Purpoſe deſigned by them; and therefore ought to be conſidered, as an irreſiſtible Barrier againſt every Aſſault upon our Liberties.

II. That the Breach of the Agreement for Non-Importation of Goods from Great-Britain, by the Merchants and Traders of New-York, is a ſcandalous Revolt from the common Cauſe of FREEDOM.——By which Proceeding, they have attempted to weaken our Union, & ſully the Character of America; vilified their own Reputations, and given the ſtrongeſt Temptations in their Power, to our unfeeling Enemies, to proſecute their malicious Deſign of enſlaving our Country!

III. That ſhould the preſent miniſterial Plot, againſt our common Liberty, be accompliſhed; or ſhould this Bait, thrown out by New-York, give Encouragement for a more extenſive Plan, to deſtroy every conſtitutional Right; whatever Fatality may happen, in Conſequence thereof, ought to be chargeable (principally) to this Defection of a prevailing Party in that City.

IV. That, in order to declare to the World our Deteſtation of the late abominable Meaſure, entered into by that prevailing Party, WE will break off ALL commercial Intercourſe and Dealing with New-York, until they properly atone for their treacherous Seperation from their Countrymen, by returning to their former Agreement, and re-ſhipping the Goods imported contrary thereto, to the Places from whence they came. Provided that, except in Caſes where Goods have been ordered, which cannot be countermanded, every Inhabitant of this Province, who has Effects at New-York, may have Liberty to remove them from thence, in Specie or Bills of Exchange only.

V. That the RESOLUTIONS entered into by this Province, againſt the Colonies of Rhode-Iſland & Georgia, on the 27th of June laſt, ſhall not extend to Veſſels which were at leaſt One-Half owned in this Provinec at that Time, ſo far as to prevent their entering our Ports in Ballaſt, to load with the Commodities of this Country, for any other Ports not excepted to by our Reſolutions.

VI. That ALL European and Eaſt-India Goods, hereafter brought into this Province, contrary to the General Reſolutions, from any Place whatever, ſhall not be ſtored, but immediately reſhipped to the Places from whence they were imported.

When theſe Reſolutions were compleated, one of the General Committee requeſting Leave to reſign, for Reaſons which were thought ſufficient, his Reſignation was accepted, and Mr. EDWARD LIGHTWOOD, Merchant, choſen in his Stead.

The General Committee then acquainted the Body of the People through their Chairman, "that WILLIAM "STUKES, a Merchant or Shop-keeper in King-Street, "and a Non-Subſcriber, had lately imported four Hogſheads of Loaf-Sugar, from England, in Oppoſition to "and Defiance of the united Sentiments of the Inhabi"tants; that he had been applied to by the Committee "of Inſpection, to ſtore or reſhip the ſame; and that he "refuſed to comply with either Requeſt:" Whereupon it was moved, and unanimouſly reſolved, that a Committee, or Deputation, from the preſent Body, be appointed, and Col. Henry Laurens, Major Charles Pinckney, James Parſons, Daniel Horry, and Iſaac Motte, Eſqrs. and Meſſrs. Peter Leger and John Scott, Jun. were accordingly appointed to call on ſaid William Stukes, To-Morrow Morning, to acquaint him "how odious his Conduct appeared "to the Inhabitants; and to adviſe and admoniſh him; "and to report his Anſwer at the next Meeting of the "General Committee."

The moſt material Buſineſs being over, the warmeſt Thanks, with repeated Claps of Applauſe, were returned to the GENERAL COMMITTEE, for their indefatigable Zeal and Attention, in the Diſcharge of their important Truſt, and alſo to the CHAIRMAN of the preſent General Meeting.

After which the Meeting was diſſolved. No Buſineſs was ever tranſacted by any numerous Body, with greater Regularity and Solemnity.

PHILADELPHIA, September 20.

We are deſired to inform the Public, that the trade between this city and the colony of Rhode Iſland, is opened, and a free intercourſe admitted as uſual.

MANY of the Inhabitants of this City, who ſometime ſince entertained hopes of advantage from a continuation of our Non-Importation Agreement; being now fully convinced, it cannot anſwer the end propoſed; and that the Trade of this City muſt ſeverely feel the effects of adhering to that meaſure, while the Colonies around us are enjoying the advantages of our inactivity, are of opinion, it is a proper time to make an alteration in ſaid agreement.

We have conferred together, and converſed with many others on the ſubject, who are of opinion with us, that the ſentiments of the ſubſcribers to the Non-Importation Agreement ſhould be taken, whether ſaid agreement ſhould continue, or be diſſolved, ſo far as to open the Importation of Goods from Great-Britain as uſual, tea, and ſuch other articles, as are or may be ſubject to duties, for the purpoſe of raiſing a revenue in America excepted.

In order to accompliſh this, the following method is propoſed: That two of the ſubſcribers be joined with two of the Committee; and theſe four, in conjunction with two or three other reputable citizens, not immediately concerned in the trade, to go round the city, and take the ſentiments of the ſubſcribers in writing, without uſing any arguments to influence their judgment; thoſe who are for opening the Importation, to ſubſcribe a paper, the copy of which is incloſed, and at the ſame time the names of thoſe who diſſent to be taken down in writing.

With this reaſonable, and as we think, unexceptionable meaſure, we hope for your concurrence.—Be pleaſed to take the foregoing propoſal under conſideration, and favour us with your ſentiments thereon, as ſoon as poſſible.

We are your Friends,

John Reynell	William Weſt
James and Drinker	Joſeph Swift
Tench Francis	Thomas Fiſher
Hugh Donaldſon	Randle Mitchell
Walter and Bertles Shee	John and Clement Biddle

Philadelphia, Sept 12, 1770.

To the Merchants Committee.

WE the Subſcribers, having conſidered the preſent ſtate of the Trade of this Province, under the Non-Importation Agreement, ſigned the 6th of February, and 10th March, 1769. and being convinced a further continuation thereof will not anſwer the good purpoſes intended---

DO mutually agree, that if a majority of the ſubſcribers thereto ſhould be of opinion, that the ſaid agreement ſhould be altered, and teſtify the ſame, by ſubſcribing their names thereto; we ſhall then conſider ourſelves at liberty to order Goods from Great Britain, except teas, and other articles, as are or may be ſubject to a duty on importation for the purpoſe of raiſing a revenue in America.

And that every other colony may have time ſufficient to order Goods from Great-Britain in like manner, we do further agree to reſtrict our orders ſent thither, that the Goods be not ſhipped from thence before the firſt of January next.

Philadelphia, September 1770.

To which the Committee returned the following anſwer:

GENTLEMEN,

WE are ſorry to find the Non Importation Agreement has not yet produced the deſired effect. What meaſures can be entered into, whereby we may ſtill aſſert our rights, and oppoſe the ſyſtem of ſlavery formed for America, the ſubſcribers to that Agreement may determine.

Conſidering the preſent ſituation of affairs, we agree with you, that it is very proper to take their ſentiments on what is beſt to be done---But we do not think ourſelves at liberty to adopt the method propoſed by you, as the agreement itſelf has pointed out another---

Every ſubſcriber to our Agreement has pledged his "word and honour" to adhere to it, until the act, complained of, is repealed, or until a general meeting of the ſubſcribers, after three days public notice ſhall determine otherwiſe." We are ready to call a general meeting of the ſubſcribers, whenever we are requeſted, but any other mode of taking their ſentiments, we have no power to adopt---However, as you ſeem to think otherwiſe we ſhall lay the article of our agreement, together with your propoſal, and this our anſwer, before the public, and let them judge.

We are your aſſured friends, and humble ſervants,

John Gibſon	William Fiſher
Daniel Benezet	Samuel Howell
John Cox	Thomas Miffl'n
Charles Thomſon	George Roberts.

J. M. Neſbit.

Upon receipt of the above anſwer, the gentlemen to whom it was directed, have undertaken to call a general meeting of the ſubſcribers to the Non-Importation Agreement; at a Tavern.

Since the above, viz. on the 21ſt of September, we hear that at a very numerous Meeting of the Merchants of Philadelphia, it was determined to IMPORT Goods agreeable to the Reſolutions of New-York, Tea excepted; but that Goods would not be permitted to be delivered, if imported before the 15th of January, 1771.

Void Tea act pa. 735. Vol. I.

When they diſſolved their agreement, vid pa. 174. Turn to the Index Vol. 2. To Find Merchants agree. to pa. 173. See the whole of this with the proper Preferences pa. 254.

Boſton, October 3. 1770.

Since our laſt arrived here, Capt. Fellows, and Capt. White, both from London: The Prints are to the 8th of Auguſt; the following Paragraphs are taken from them.

LONDON, July 26.

PARLIAMENT will certainly meet either the 6th or 9th of November next; and the reaſon of this early (though in fact but proper time of) meeting, is the neceſſity of bringing the affairs of America under the conſideration of Parliament; for by a reſolution which the council have come to, the Miniſtry can take no farther ſteps without the aid of Parliament. The ſubſtance of the reſolution is, "That the Boſtonians have forfeited their charter;" and therefore, to ſupport this reſolution, Parliament muſt take away the charter.

July 30. Three C——ls ſince the 15th of this month, have been held on American affairs. Many members were of opinion, that his Majeſty, with the advice of his Privy-council, was ſufficiently empowered to ſuppreſs the tumults in America in what manner he thought proper; but a cautious member, of the law, obſerved, that in the preſent ſituation of affairs they could not act too prudently, and therefore it was ſafer to leave the manner of quelling them to the Parliament, as by that means it would be the action of the whole nation; which opinion, we hear, was adopted.

It was ſaid on monday night, with the greateſt confidence, and bets were laid upon it, that the leading men in the Boſton committee would pay a viſit to the Britiſh capital in leſs than three months.

Aug. 3. Yeſterday a full board of Treaſury was held, at the breaking up of which an expreſs was ſent to Lord North at North-End, who, to the ſurpriſe of many did not appear yeſterday at St. James's.

A conſiderable number of Quakers, moſt of whom were females, attended the Levee at St. James's yeſterday, and had the honor of ſeeing their Majeſties, by whom they were noticed with the moſt gracious marks of attention.

Yeſterday morning the Earl of Hillſborough, Secretary of State for the colonies, ſet out from his houſe in Hanover Square for Ireland.

Auguſt 6. Thomas Bradſhaw, Eſq; one of the Joint Secretaries to the Treaſury, will certainly reſign in a few days; and —— Robinſon, private Secretary to Lord North, be appointed in his room. Mr. Robinſon already tranſacts the principal part of the Treaſury buſineſs.

The Lords of the Admiralty have appointed George Mackenzie, Eſq; Captain of the Arrogant, a guard-ſhip at Portſmouth, to be Commander in Chief of his Majeſty's ſhips and veſſels at Jamaica, in the room of Commodore Forreſt, deceaſed.

It is ſaid that a fleet of ſhips will ſhortly be fitted out, under the command of Admiral Rodney.

A Board of Trade and Plantations will be held to-morrow.

His Majeſty ſeldom lies in bed after five o'clock, and moſt mornings either rides on horſeback, or walks ſeveral miles before breakfaſt.

Her Majeſty lately ſent the Queen of Denmark a preſent of ſome of her own needlework, of exquiſit fineneſs.

Auguſt 6. The laſt blow was given to every branch of Lord N——n's negociations on Thurſday laſt, at a meeting of certain great Perſonages in a houſe not far from St. James's-ſtreet.

The miniſter is determined upon three points, which the public may be aſſured will be carried into execution before he quits the helm. The firſt, to bring the Americans to a ſenſe of their duty; the ſecond, to have Great-Britain indemnified in the ampleſt manner, by all foreign powers on whom ſhe has claims of any ſort; and thirdly, to put the marine, in all its departments, upon a footing on which it has never yet been known.

Auguſt 7. Yeſterday diſpatches were received at the Secretary of State's office for the colonies from Boſton.

On Saturday laſt his Moſt Gracious Majeſty ſent a gentleman to Mr Akerman, keeper of Newgate, who paid the ſum of 100*l. which was levied by the Houſe of Lords on Mr. Edmunds (late publiſher of the Middleſex Journal, in which was inſerted the Lords Proteſt:) the dues to the Black Rod are ordered not to be paid.—An inſtance of Sovereign clemency in ſuch a caſe is not to be paralleled.*

They write from the continent that the progreſs of Ruſſia, with the late manœuvers of the King of Pruſſia, and the armaments making by moſt of the continental powers, indicate a general war throughout Europe, which it is feared, will take place much ſooner than is expected.

By the great preparations made of late by the King of Pruſſia, it is thought he will ſoon declare either for the Turks or Ruſſians, having been much ſolicited by both parties.——Whoever he takes part with, it will certainly ſoon put an end to that bloody war.

The following article is copied verbatim from an Iriſh Evening Paper: "Advice is received that the late irregularities in the Morea will coſt the Pacha of that Place his Head, or ſomething worſe."

LONDON, Auguſt 8.

We are aſſured that the report of an accommodation having taken place between the miniſtry and the minority, is not true.

Yeſterday a Board of Treaſury was held, at the breaking up of which, an expreſs was diſpatched to Lord North, at Dillington, in Somerſetſhire, in conſequence of which he is expected in town this day.

The reported of Lord Northington's being ſent for to town to uſe his endeavour to bring about a coalition of parties, and that the Seals were offered to his Lordſhip and refuſed, is totally void of the leaſt foundation. The true reaſon of his Lordſhip's coming to town was to purchaſe a houſe, and furniſh it for the reception of Lady Northington, in caſe of his Lordſhip's death, as his Lordſhip has at preſent no town houſe.

The report of a coalition of parties is entirely falſe and groundleſs; and we are aſſured no union will ever take place between the preſent contending parties, the gentlemen in oppoſition have frequently declared, that they will never come into power again, unleſs every man who has attached himſelf to the preſent adminiſtration be diſmiſſed from his employment.

Lord N—— has received a certain aſſurance of the certain poſſeſſion of all his honours and emoluments—till the 10th of November next at leaſt.

We are aſſured that a great Lawyer talked very confidently to an exalted Perſonage of his reſolution to retire before the approach of winter, having laboured ſufficiently long in the ſervice of his country.

It is alſo ſaid, that an eye has been caſting of late among the gentlemen of the Robe for a ſucceſſor ſufficiently qualified to fill up the vacancy, if a certain reſignation ſhould take place.

It is ſaid General Paoli is ſoliciting the intereſt of his friends to procure him a command in the honorable Eaſt-India Company's ſervice.

We are poſſitively aſſured, that the moſt coerſive meaſures are now adopted by the major part of a certain Board, to reduce the refractory Americans to their Duty.

We hear a commercial treaty is concluded between the King of Sardania and the Empreſs of Ruſſia.

Portſmouth, Auguſt 5. The following is an exact catalogue of what we have loſt and ſaved. Burnt—about 150 or 160 cables of different ſizes; all the boatſwains and carpenters ſea ſtores; all the ſtanding rigging for ſhips of fit condition; about 300 tons of hemp; about 300 barrels of tar, pitch, and turpentine, laying and ſpinning-houſes, long ſtore-houſe, block-loft, new hemp-houſes, carpenters houſe & ſhop, with the new maſt-houſes, & all the capital maſts therein contained. Saved—the rigging-houſe, with the ſtores therein, and half the ſails; the lower maſt-houſe, with its contents.

Paſſed by the Iſle of Wight, for the River, the Norfolk, Buggin, from the Eaſt Indies, who brought advice of the Lord Holland, Nairn, being loſt in Bengal River, and the whole crew being drowned, except twenty-three; amongſt the latter is the Captain and the third Mate.

The William, Bubuia, from Marblehead, is arrived at Bilboa.

Entered in from Boſton, the Leviathan, Jenkins.
From New-England, the London, Hazel
From No. America, the John & Eſther, Hodgſon.

Auguſt 8. In laſt night's Gazette a reward of one thouſand pounds, clear of all deductions, is offered by the Lords of the Admiralty, to any perſon as ſhall, within three months, diſcover any of the perſons concerned in ſetting fire to the Store-houſes and Buildings in the Dock-yard at Portſmouth; and his Majeſty promiſes his pardon to any of the ſaid offenders, (except the perſon who actually ſet the premiſes on fire) who ſhall diſcover any one or more of his other accomplices in the ſaid offence, ſo that he or they may be apprehended and proſecuted to conviction.

It is a certain and a very pleaſing fact, that there are now in the ſtore houſes of Catham-yard only, utenſils of every kind ſufficient to equip forty capital ſhips of the line.

We are authorized to inform the public, that Mr. Robinſon has not as yet done any part of the buſineſs of the Treaſury whatſoever.

Orders are now given for more ſhips of war to inveſt the town of Boſton, and for more Regiments, who are to re-aſſume their old quarters in it.

By a gentleman lately arrived in town from Britanny we are informed, that the ten ſhips of the line, prepared to ſail at Breſt, have all of them double decks.

An honeſt Jack Tar ſeeing the D— of C—— at Portſmouth ſcribbling with his pencil in a pocket-book, cried out, "I wiſh your R—l H——ſs would write me a love-letter to Blue Moll at Wapping.

Wedneſday at Guildford, the Serjeant for ſtabbing Mr. Smith at Weſtminſter bridge, of which wound he afterwards died, was tried before Judge Smythe; the Jury found him Guilty, when the Judge ſent them out of court again; and on their ruturn they again found him Guilty; when the Judge again ſent them out of court, and on their return they brought in a Special Verdict.

Briſtol, Auguſt 4. Saturday laſt died at his lodgings at Clifton, Robert Dinwiddle, Eſq; aged upwards of 80, many years Lieutenant-Governor of Virginia, which office he ſome time ſince quitted on account of his years, with the higheſt reputation.

CHARLESTOWN, (S. Carolina,) Aug. 27.

The Ship Pratt, Richard Ruſſel, Maſter, which ſailed 14th inſtant, from this Port, with 606 Barrels of Rice, for Cowes, ſprung a leak, after being four Days at Sea, and bore away for Boſton.

HALIFAX, SEPTEMBER 11.

Sunday arrived the ſhip America, Capt. Sholl in nine weeks from London, with a number of ſettlers for the Iſland of St. John; the veſſel being leaky, put in here to refit.

The ſme day arrived his Majeſty's ſnow Egmont, from Newfoundland to refit. And his Majeſty's ſhip the Boſton, from Virginia.

Sept. 19. Wedneſday laſt ſailed his Majeſty's ſhip Canſo, for England.

The ſame day ſailed his Majeſty's ſhip Deal-Caſtle for New-York, in which Col. Leaſly, of the 64th Regimeni went paſſenger.

PORTSMOUTH, New-Hampſhire, Sept. 28.

Laſt Week the Rev. Dr. Langdon, of this Town, with the Conſent of his People, ſet out on a Journey to Connecticut River, in order to preach the Goſpel to the Inhabitants ſettling in the new Townſhips.

PORTSMOUTH, Sept. 28. 1770.

Laſt Sunday Morning came to Town from Boſton, the Reverend GEORGE WHITEFIELD, and in the Afternoon preached at the Rev. Dr. HAVEN's Meeting Houſe; Monday Morning he preach'd again at the ſame Place to a very large and crouded Audience:---Tueſday Morning a moſt numerous Aſſembly met at the Rev. Doctor LANGDON's Meeting-Houſe to hear him again, which it's ſaid will hold Six Thouſand People, and was well fill'd, even the Alley's where he preach'd, to general Acceptance.---Wedneſday he preached at the Rev. Mr. JOHN ROGER's Meeting Houſe, in Kittery, and Yeſterday at the Rev. Mr. LYMAN's in York, to which Places a Number of Ladies and Gentlemen from Town accompanied him.

This Morning, at Ten o'Clock, the Rev'd Mr. WHITEFIELD, will preach at the Rev. Dr. LANGDON's Meeting-Houſe in this Town.

From laſt Monday's Gazette.

Boſton, October 1.

Laſt Evening we were informed by a melancholly Meſſenger from Newbury-Port, that Yeſterday Morning about VI o'Clock, at that Place, the Reverend and renowned GEORGE WHITEFIELD, Chaplain to the Right Hon. the Counteſs of Huntingdon, &c. &c. was, by a ſudden Mandate, ſummoned to the Boſom of his Saviour! He had been preaching in divers Parts of this Province ſince his Arrival from the Southward, with his uſual Diligence and Energy; was now from a Tour to the Province of New-Hampſhire on his return to this Town, but being ſeized with a violent Fit of the Aſthma, was in a very ſhort ſpace tranſlated from the Labours of this Life, to the Entertainments of a better. ——Of this truly-pious and very extraordinary Perſonage, little can be ſaid but what every Friend to vital Chriſtianity who has ſat under his Miniſtrations will readily atteſt: In his public Performances thro'-out Europe, and on ſeveral different Viſits, in moſt Parts of Britiſh America; he has, for a long Courſe of Years, aſtoniſhed the World as a prodigy of Eloquence and Devotion! With what Frequency and Chearfulneſs did he aſcend the Deſk, the Language of his Actions being ever, "Wiſt ye not that I muſt be about my Maſter's Buſineſs"; With what divine Pathos, did he not plead with, and perſuade by the moſt engaging Incitements, the Impenitent Sinner to the Practice of Piety and Virtue! Filled with the Spirit of Grace, he ſpoke from the Heart; and with a Fervency of Zeal, perhaps unequalled ſince the Days of the Apoſtles, ornamented the celeſtial animations of the Preacher, with the gracefull and moſt enticing Charms of Rhetoric and Oratory. From the Pulpit he was unrivalled in the command of an ever-crouded and admiring Auditory; nor was he leſs entertaining and inſtructive in his private Converſation and Deportment: Happy in a remarkable Eaſe of Addreſs, willing to communicate, ſtudious to edifie, and formed to amuſe; ſuch in more retired Life, was the Character of the Perſon whoſe Departure we lament; and while a peculiar Pleaſantry enlivened and rendered his Company agreeable, his Converſation was ever marked with the great Objects of his purſuit, Virtue and Religion! It were to be wiſhed, that the good Impreſſions of his Miniſtry may be long retained; and that the riſing Generation, like their pious Anceſtors, may catch a Spark of that ætherial Flame which burnt with ſuch diſtinguiſhed Luſtre, in the Sentiment and Practice of this faithful Servant of the Moſt High GOD.

BOSTON, Octob. 4. 1770.

Early on Monday Morning laſt a Number of Gentlemen ſet out from hence for Newbury-Port, in order to convey the Corps of the Rev'd Mr. Whitefield, to this Town, to be here interred: The Gentlemen are not yet returned; and we hear the People at Newbury-Port would not allow the Corps to be brought away, they having prepared a Brick Tomb under the Preſbyterian Meeting-Houſe: His Funeral was attended by a great Concourſe of People, on Tueſday Afternoon; — We have received no Particulars thereof, nor of his Death; only that having Preached the Day before in an open Field at Saliſbury, arrived at Newbury-Port that Evening;—about Two o'Clock he got up and dreſſed himſelf, complained of his Illneſs, and went to Prayer with the Gentleman who accompanies him;—then lay on the Bed with his Cloaths on, and at 4 o'Clock, got up and ſaid he was near his End, and before the Rev'd Mr. Parſons could be called, he fainted and died.

A FUNERAL HYMN, wrote by the Rev'd Mr. Whitefield: Said to be deſigned to have been ſung over his Corpſe by the Orphans belonging to his Tabernacle in London, had he died there. Sold at Green & Ruſſell's.

Mr. Draper, The following Lines were spoken extempore, on hearing of the Death of that truly pious and devout Man of God, the Rev'd GEORGE WHITEFIELD, by
A LAYMAN.

RENowned WHITEFIELD, dead! This cannot be:
He's only ſtept to Immortality,
In Realms of Bliſs; where great JEHOVAH reigns,
There to receive Rewards for all his Pains.
Nor mourn his Loſs; Man's Life is but a Span;
Regret your Loſs; he's far the happier Man.

Mr. Draper, Pleaſe to inſert the following:

I.

WHITEFIELD is gone! That Orator divine,
Whoſe Preſence, Voice, and Geſture cou'd [command
Our cloſe Attention——and our Tho'ts confine,
Whilſt his wiſe Documents we did attend.—

II.

With Plainneſs, and with Energy of Speech,
The ſacred Goſpel-Truths He wou'd impart
T' attending Throngs—and ardently beſeech,
That THESE might be impreſs'd on ev'ry Heart.—

III.

JESUS, the Object of his conſtant love,
Was the chief Subject which our WHITEFIELD choſe—
Hence to this JESUS, in yon' Realms above,
He's gladly gone—to take his ſweet repoſe.—

IV.

No more ſhall we his Countenance behold
As heretofore—his pleaſant Voice no more
Shall captivate the Ears of young and old—
For He's now landed on the Heav'nly Shore.—

V.

His Joys are full—while miſerable we
Are left behind to mourn the heavy Loſs,
Both to our ſelves, and all AMERICA—
No WHITEFIELD now, with tears to plead our Cauſe!

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 24.

At a Meeting of the Subſcribers to the Non-importation Agreement (entered into on the 6th of February and 10th of March 1769) at Joſiah Davenport's Tavern, September the 20th, 1770, THOMAS WILLING, Eſq; being unanimouſly choſen Chairman, it was determined by a Vote, that the following Queſtions be put.

Firſt. ARE you of Opinion, that the Non-importation Agreement, as it now ſubſiſts, ſhould be altered? Which was determined by a great Majority, in the Affirmative.

Second. Are you of Opinion that the Alteration propoſed, ſhould be to open the Importation of Goods from Great-Britain, and other Parts of Europe, except Teas, and ſuch other Articles as are, or may be ſubject to Duties for the Purpoſe of raiſing a Revenue in America? Which was determined by a great Majority in the Affirmative.

Third. Whether it will not be for the Reputation of this City, to conſult the other Colonies, before any Breach is made in the preſent Agreement? Which was determined in the Negative.

Fourth. Whether the Agreement is deemed to be broke or altered? Agreed that it is altered only.

Fifth. Whether any Goods ſhall be admitted to be landed and ſold here, which ſhall ſail in any Veſſel from Great-Britain, before the 15th of January next, until the Spring Veſſels generally arrive, that all may be on a Footing?—Reſolved in the Negative.

Mr. Thomſon acquainted the Subſcribers met, that Meſſrs. William Fiſher, John Gibſon, John Maxwell Neſbit, George Roberts, Thomas Mifflin, Daniel Benezet, John Cox, jun. Samuel Howell, Alexander Huſton, James Meaſe, and himſelf, conſidering the Non-importation Agreement to be broke by the Reſolves now paſſed, no longer deem themſelves of the Committee.

It was therefore determined that the Subſcribers to the Non-importation Agreement be deſired by public Notice, to meet on Saturday Morning next, at 10 o'Clock, at Joſiah Davenport's, to chooſe eleven Perſons, to ſupply the Places of thoſe Gentlemen of the Committee, who have now reſigned.

The Thanks of the Subſcribers were then given to the Chairman, for his impartial Conduct in propoſing the different Queſtions at their Meeting; alſo to the Gentlemen of the Committee, for their Care and Attention, in endeavouring to have the Non-importation Agreement hitherto complied with.

NEW-YORK, September 27.

To the PRINTER.

THE late Conduct of the Merchants of New-York, Philadelphia, &c. ſufficiently proves, that no Dependance is to be had upon any Combination or Agreement that can be entered into for the public Good, however well calculated to anſwer that End—if it interferes with the private immediate Intereſt of Individuals. Some of them—perhaps many may be faithful to their Contracts, but many others will not—and even a ſmall Number may defeat the good Deſigns of the reſt. The Miniſtry therefore, tho' in purſuit of a wrong Meaſure, were right in their Concluſion,—that our Avarice and Falſhood to one another would enable them to enſlave us all. CATO.

BOSTON, October 4.

Sunday Morning Died at his Houſe in Cambridge Street, after a lingering painful diſeaſe, which he bore with Philoſophic Fortitude, LEONARD JARVIS, Eſq; Colonel of the Company of Cadets, an eminent Merchant of this place.—This GENTLEMAN ſuſtained the ſeveral Relations of life with Honor and Virtue:—He has left his Friends, SINCERELY to regret his Death.—His Remains are to be interred this Afternoon at 4 o'Clock.

Laſt Night died here Abigail Collins, Wife of Elijah Collins: A Woman of a benevolent Diſpoſition, very friendly to the poor.

Capt. Hood arrived in London from this Place in 30 Days; by him they had the Meſſages that paſſed in the General-Court at their Seſſion in June laſt.

They had alſo accounts of the affair of breaking Mr. Hulton's Windows at Brookline; as alſo of the Carting of M'Maſters, which Cauſes great Uneaſineſs among our Friends at Home.

In the Engliſh Papers are a Number of Letters from Boſton, containing the Debates at Faneuil-Hall, relative to Non-Importation, Reports of Committees, &c. with many bitter and cruel Reflections on the Inhabitants of the Town, who have ſuffered moſt of any Colony by the Agreement: The adherence to the Agreement in June laſt, and the Philadelphians and New-Yorkers joining therein, gave a moſt ſenſible Alarm to the People in England, and made even the Enemies of America do Juſtice to the Public Virtue and Patriotiſm of its Inhabitants, which they allow is unparrallelled in Modern Times:——But how will they be affected when the Orders arrives from New-York for Goods; which doubtleſs would be in a Week after Capt. White ſailed! Certainly they will be ſurprized.

Capt. Jacobſon and Capt. White, for London; and ſeveral other Veſſels for different Parts, having been detained by ſtormy Weather for ſeveral Days paſt, are getting ready to ſail this Day.

Capt. Jones in a Ship from Briſtol, is arrived at Piſcataqua.

We hear a Snow from Maryland, bound to this Place, laden with Flour, Wheat, and Flax-Seed, was caſt-away laſt Saturday 7-night on the Sow & Piggs, near Martha's Vineyard. The People were ſaved.

Commodore Hood is hourly expected here in the Romney from Halifax: The Boſton is the only Man of War left at Halifax.

Captains Calef and Davies were to leave London for this Place two Days after Capt. White.

Capt. Johnſon was ſailed for Ireland, to take in ſtores for Halifax.

Sunday arrived here the Ship Experiment Capt. Hamlin.--He was bound to Virginia, and has been out 9 Weeks and 2 Days, but put in here to Reſit, having ſprung a Leak.

Since our laſt arrived here the Senegal Man of War, Capt. Sir Thomas Rich, from Halifax alſo an armed Schooner with 14 of the Train of Artillery who are at Caſtle William.

A Child of Mr. Abraham Sawyer of Templetown, in attempting to croſs a Mill-dam there, fell in and was drowned before any aſſiſtance could be given.

Laſt Monday one Moſes Saunders, belonging to Watertown, was taken up at Reading for ſtealing ſundry Things at Wilmington a few Days before, for which the Juſtice ſentenced him to receive 20 Stripes, which was immediately inflicted upon him, and he was afterwards committed to Gaol for want of Money to pay the Charges.

The Honorable Houſe of Repreſentatives on Thurſday laſt appointed a Committee of nine Members, of which the Speaker was Chairman, to take under Conſideration his Honor's Speech delivered that Morning, who the next Day reported, that it was for the Intereſt of the Province ſtill to adhere to their former Reſolution not to proceed to the public Buſineſs. It was then moved and ordered that the Conſideration of the Report be poſtponed till Wedneſday next, and that in the mean time Expreſſes be ſent to call in the abſent Members.——On Saturday the Houſe voted to obſerve Wedneſday next as a Day of Prayer, to ſeek the Direction and Favour of Almighty GOD, and ſent the Vote to the Council Board, where it was unanimouſly concurred.

Yeſterday the General Court attended at the Meeting-Houſe in Cambridge, in the Forenoon, the Rev. Mr. Cooke of Menotomy, preached from Nehemiah ix. 36, & 37, verſes. Behold, we are ſervants this day, and for the land that thou gaveſt unto our fathers, to eat the fruit thereof, and the good thereof, behold, we are ſervants in it. — And it yieldeth much increaſe unto the kings whom thou haſt ſet over us, becauſe of our ſins: alſo they have dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleaſure, and we are in great diſtreſs. In the Afternoon, the Rev. Mr. Appleton of Cambridge, preached from Pſalm cxiii. laſt Clauſe of Verſe 8. — Cauſe me to know the way wherein I ſhould walk, for I liſt up my ſoul unto thee.

THE Meeting of the Freeholders and other Inhabitants of this Town, ſtands adjourn'd to Monday next, the eighth Inſt. at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, in order to receive the Report of the Committee appointed by the Town, to enquire into the Titles of the Abettors on the Town-Dock, and to determine whether the ſame ſhall be filled up agreeable to the Prayer of a Petition for that Purpoſe; and alſo the Report of another Committee appointed to Conſider of the Propoſal of a Number of the Inhabitants for forming a Society to promote Agriculture, Manufactures, and Commerce in the Province. And as theſe are Matters of great Importance, The Gentlemen the Select-Men deſire there may be a general Attendance of the Inhabitants at ſaid Adjournment.

STROMNESS IN ORKNEY.

THAT there is lately erected at Stromness in the Orkneys by JAMES GORDON and SON, a large Warehouse and Wharf, for the Reception of Rice and other Goods to and from the East Country, subjected to Payment of Duties in Great-Britain: At which Rice in particular can be managed with the greatest Expedition, being so contrived, that it can be started and screened in the worst Weather, without the smallest Prejudice, and Ships can unload and load with greatest Ease. Whoever shall be pleased to commit any Business to the Care of these Gentlemen, may depend upon the strictest Attention to their Interest; and they flatter themselves that their Management will be esteemed such as to prove a sufficient Inducement for future Employment. It will be necessary that all Gentlemen who have any Concern in the Rice Trade be acquainted of some particular Advantages they will have by sending their Vessels thro' this Channel. A Ship clearing with Rice at Stromness is at no other Expence for her Cargo than one Shilling sterl. per whole, and eight Pence per half Barrel, with some trifling Expence for promoting Dispatch, which never exceeds 50 s. upon the largest Cargo, together with a small Custom-House charge against the Ship for Reports in and out, and an inconsiderable Jirque Fee. Besides this there is not a six Pence of any other Charge or Expence whatsoever.—Provisions here are extremely cheap, Beef never exceeding three half Pence a Pound, and young Lads for Apprentices may be had very reasonable; several Americans coming this way formerly have experienced that none ever prove more faithful Servants than those of this Country. And many other Advantages may occur that need not be mentioned in this Advertisement.

The Creditors of Dr. John Newman of Newbury-port, an insolvent Debtor, are (in pursuance of a late Law of this Province) hereby notified to bring in their Claims against the said insolvent Debtor, to the Trustees, who will meet for that Purpose at the House of Mr. Benjamin Choate, Innholder in Newbury-port on the 26th Day of October next.
